

mass incarceration	deinstitutionalization	mental illness in prison	discriminating policies
George Daniel	competency examination	lack of legal advice or legal support	incompetency
Avery Jenkins	Old South	Confederate flag	segregation
“Confederate Americans”	strip-search	humiliation	chocolate milkshake
foster care system	trial	accommodation for disabilities	mitigation

Except where otherwise noted, this material by Jasmina Schmerer is licensed under a Creative Commons Attribution 4.0 International license (CC-BY).

way of doing something that has officially been agreed on but disadvantages certain groups		process of restructuring psychiatric care for mentally ill that led to the incarceration of many of those released	the act of putting a large number of people in prison
lack of ability or skill to do something	no support relating to law	when a doctor determines whether someone can do sth.
dividing people into groups according to their skin color or ethnicity	flag of the eleven southern states during their secession from the United States between 1860 and 1865	American Southern states before the Civil War (i.e. built on slavery)
	feeling of shame and great embarrassment because you have been made to look stupid or weak	process in which you have to remove your clothes so that your body can be checked (e.g. for drugs)	people that identify with the ideology of the Old South
reduction in how unpleasant, harmful, or serious a situation is	to consider people with disabilities	legal process in which a judge and a jury examine information to decide whether someone is guilty of a crime	institution that overviews the process of children being taken care of by people that are not their parents for a period

Conceptboard for Bryan Stevenson’s Just Mercy – Chapter 10: “Mitigation”

Note: The worksheet must be printed double-sided, so that each term matches with an annotation.

Goal: Recapitulation of the chapter, review of key aspects

Potential student solutions:

- Chronological order or organization by topic possible.
- The word cards function as scaffolding in reviewing the chapter.
- Annotations do not have to be used but are optional to differentiate students.
- Students should be able to explain the terms in their context of appearance in the chapter.

Kommentiert [LG1]: Dieser Teil war ursprünglich als eine Art Handreichung in einem separaten Dokument, fand es allerdings sehr sinnvoll, das bisschen Text hier mit einzufügen als in einem separaten Dok.

Except where otherwise noted, this material by Jasmina Schmerer is licensed under a Creative Commons Attribution 4.0 International license (CC-BY).