1. Get together in groups of four!

2. Have a look at the separate worksheets.

- Divide the work: One person gets one worksheet.
- What character traits can you gather from the provided quotes/lines?
- Write them down on a sheet of paper or in your folder and share your answers with the class.

3. Read Act 2 Scene 5, l. 30-118 in your groups.

- Divide the different parts in your group: Who plays who?
- Tipp: Stick to the character you worked on in task 2.

4. Shakespeare gave this comedic scene only one stage direction: "Olivia's garden". Stage this scene. The following questions can help you get started:

- Where do Sir Toby and his friends hide?
- Do they move? If so, when?
- How do they behave? Or are they playful or serious about hiding?
- How does Malvolio behave?
- Is the audience a factor during this scene? Are they involved?
- What does this garden look like?

5. Write your own detailed stage directions either in your folder or on a separate sheet of paper. Bullet points are enough. Practice your stage directions and prepare for your big performance!
