

Material 2 - Playhouses can be found on the following website:

<https://teach.shakespearesglobe.com/fact-sheet-playhouses?previous=/library/category/reading-148%3Fkeyword%3Dthe%2520stage>

attracted drawn to something; interested or pulled towards, Inn a small hotel or place for lodging and meals; demand the need or desire for something, yards open spaces, often around buildings; gardens; disruptive causing problems; disturbing, undesirable unwanted or unpleasant, animal baiting areas places where animals were used for sport or entertainment, often cruelly, brothels houses where people engage in prostitution, taverns bars or pubs

Annotations adapted for target group from definitions generated with AI.

This material by Annemarie Jessen and Paula Paelke is licensed under a Creative Commons Attribution 4.0 International license (CC-BY-NC-SA).

<https://teach.shakespearesglobe.com/fact-sheet-playhouses?previous=/library/category/reading-148%3Fkeyword%3Dthe%2520stage>

money to spare extra or surplus money; leased rented or temporarily used in exchange for payment; brick a building material made of clay, shaped into blocks, and hardened; timber-framed built using wooden beams or structures; plaster a material used to coat walls or ceilings, made of lime or cement; thatch a roof covering made of straw, reeds, or similar materials.

Annotations adapted for target group from definitions generated with AI.

This material by Annemarie Jessen and Paula Paelke is licensed under a Creative Commons Attribution 4.0 International license (CC-BY-NC-SA).